The decision of the Chief Executive Officer in this regard shall be final and shall not be questioned by the Bank.

13. If the agency, owing to some unavoidable pre-occupations is unable to take up execution of the work, SMOI, shall be free to assign to the next agency or any other agency as it deems fit for that particular work.

14. In the event of the agency's failure to execute the work:
   a. According to the prescribed time schedule; or
   b. According to the accepted standards of workmanship, and
   c. To the satisfaction of the SMOI.

   SMOI may reallocate the work to some other agency at its discretion.

15. In the event of making alternative arrangements in the circumstances arising under Clause 14 above, the excess cost, if any, incurred by reason of the difference between prices paid to the other agency and the contract rates (to be certified by the CEO, SMOI whose certificate shall be final), SMOI may charge the amount of such excess cost to the agency and the same may at any time be deducted from any sum or sums due then or which at any time thereafter may become due to the agency under this or any other contract or from the Bank by virtue of its being stood as a guarantor or may be demanded of his /them to be paid to SMOI within seven days from the date of demand made by the CEO, SMOI.

16. Notwithstanding anything contained in conditions laid down in clauses 14 and 15, it shall be within the competence of the CEO, SMOI, in case of any discovery of error or defect due to the fault of the agency at any time after the work has been executed, to get such error or defect rectified by the agency at agency's cost to the satisfaction of and within the time fixed by the CEO or to accept owing to urgency or for any other reason, such defective work at a rate not more than 80 percent of the contract rate pertaining to the portions adjudged to be defective.
17. In the event of work being wholly rejected, SMOI may at his own discretion either:
   a. Permit the agency to re-do the same within such time as he may specify at agency's cost or,
   b. Arrange to get the work done elsewhere and by another person or from any other sources than the agency. However, subject to terms and conditions of this contract, in which case the extra cost, if any, shall be recovered from the agency in the manner provided in Clause 15.
18. The power of the SMOI, shall in no way affect or prejudice the power in certain events to terminate the contract vested in him as herein provided or forfeiture of EMD, mentioned above whether assigning any reason or without assigning any basis. SMOI decision shall be final.
19. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the penalty clause may be relaxed at the discretion of the SMOI in the event of execution of work becoming highly impossible on account of force majeure conditions like severe power cut imposed by the Government, viz., major or other unavoidable, irresistible forces, provided same has not been occasioned by any intentional wrongful act, default or negligence on the part of the agency.
20. If any item of work/operations, not provided for, is required to be performed, rates to be paid for, shall be determined separately, by mutual consent.
21. The word agency appearing in the contract shall include an individual or partnership firm or a joint stock company and their heirs, successors and executors.
22. The contract will be in force for 2(Two) years from the date of acceptance and may be extended for one more year on the same terms and conditions will be concurrent with the period of empanelment including renewal ,if any, at the discretion of CEO, SMOI.
23. SMOI reserves the right to terminate the contract at any time during the contract period without notice and without assigning any reason.
24. The decision of CEO, SMOI is final in all the above matters.
25. Disputes of any kind are subject to the jurisdiction of Bangalore courts only.
